

Barley Hop : Ceilidh Night

The Barley Hop Ceilidh Night is all very informal and open to all. The idea is to give the band the opportunity to try out new tunes and dances with a dancing audience but also to give dancers and would-be dancers the opportunity to dance, practice and learn in an open informal setting. Although Barley Hop will be leading the whole thing we would welcome other musicians to come and play along. Furthermore, we would also welcome other callers or would-be callers to come and try their hand.

WHEN

Ceilidh Nights normally take place on the fourth Tuesday of each month starting at 8pm.

However, there will be no Ceilidh Night in August.

The next Ceilidh Night will on: 26th September.

WHERE

So far, our regular venue has been the All

Saints Rooms, Cockermouth, but these rooms are to be converted to offices and we have been told our July booking was the last. The September Ceilidh Night will be at the Church Hall, Christ Church, Church, South Street, Cockermouth, CA13 0EB.

ALSO

There is a small entrance fee (£3) to cover the hire of the hall and please bring your own refreshments.

If you have any comments or suggestions or would like to be put on our email list, please contact us at Contact@barleyhop.co.uk.

THE JULY CEILIDH NIGHT

Firstly, I must apologise for almost, but not quite, totally forgetting to send out the usual reminder to those on the email list. If in doubt, in future, please check this website as it will be definitive. The Ceilidh Night Facebook page usually has a reminder just before the event.

Although we had a somewhat depleted band and many of the regular dancers were missing, there were several new faces and some additions to the email list (who might or might not receive a reminder - what with me being a bear-of-little-brain - maybe someone could send me a reminder to send out the reminders).
